

Dorothy Willits Hallowell Nursing Scholarship

The Anna T. Jeanes Foundation is a non-profit corporation dedicated to continuing the Quaker presence and values in the Jeanes Hospital community. Its Mission includes activities which support the social ministry of Friends in the community through preparation of health care professionals who embrace Quaker values. Toward that end, the Foundation is making scholarship money available to high school seniors who wish to pursue the profession of nursing and have been accepted into an institution of higher education that offers an approved program of study in professional nursing. Dorothy Willets Hallowell was a long time resident of the Jeanes Hospital community and supporter of Jeanes Hospital.
